Strength Essentials Workshop

For several years, Now Discover Your Strengths book by Marcus Buckingham and Don Clifton has touched a nerve in many business communities.

More and more of today's workforce members are unhappy in their current jobs and are reluctant to make a change resulting in unhealthy work environments.

The strength movement has caught fire and companies are encouraging their employees to complete the brief assessment and begin making incremental changes that play to their strengths.

The idea is to mid-course correct your career NOW and create the work experience you have always known was right for you.

The Artist's Way Series

Don't let the title fool you. This series has nothing to do with drawing or paint brushes, so leave your smock at home! It has everything to do with the most important topic you'll ever study – YOU!

For 12 weeks beginning Friday morning, February 3, you will meet with other like-minded adventure seekers as you progress thru Julia Cameron's book.

Expect a journey that will give you permission to explore what is keeping you from enjoying the next level of success. If you want more meaningful relationships, more wealth and success, better health, a stronger spiritual connection or just a little time for yourself, this is the place to be! Make the decision to invest in yourself! It all starts with you.

“I have learned, as a rule of thumb, never to ask whether you can do something. Instead, say that you are doing it. Then fasten your seat belt. The most remarkable things follow.”

– Julia Cameron

Fridays from February 3 – April 20
